

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, public works services are an integral part of our daily lives: planning, building, managing and operating at the heart of our community to improve everyday quality of life; and

WHEREAS, within every public works professional lies a superhero, always READY to serve their community and RESILIENT as ever in their ability to encounter challenges including natural disasters and trials in the field; and

WHEREAS, public works professionals help keep our community strong by providing an infrastructure of services in transportation, water, wastewater and stormwater treatment, city buildings and spaces, parks and grounds, emergency management first response, and solid waste; and

WHEREAS, our public works team significantly contributes in making Ormond Beach a great place to live and work, ensuring the health, safety and comfort of the residents; and

WHEREAS, the American Public Works Association has celebrated the annual National Public Works Week since 1960, and this year's theme is "Ready & Resilient"; and

WHEREAS, the week is a time to come together to celebrate and honor the contribution public works makes on our community in planning, building, managing and operating the heart of the community and building quality of life; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Partington, Mayor of the City of Ormond Beach, do hereby proclaim May 15-21, 2022 as in the City of Ormond Beach and urge all citizens to join me in paying tribute to our brave and essential public works "superheroes" and thank them for working hard each and every day contributing to our quality of life and ready at any given time to respond.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the City of Ormond Beach, to be affixed this 18th day of May in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Twenty-two.

BILL PARTINGTON
Mayor
