

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Theresa "Terri" Hamsher grew up in Connecticut and graduated from Brien McMahon High School, married Garth Hamsher, and relocated to Florida in the 1990s; and

WHEREAS, on February 19, 2001, Terri began employment with the City of Ormond Beach as an Office Assistant II to the Executive Secretary. In January 2011, Terri assumed the duties of the Executive Secretary to the City Manager, becoming the sole administrative support to serve the City Manager's office. In April 2012, she joined the American Society of Administrative Professionals organization to further enhance her training and skills; and

WHEREAS, over the course of her twenty-two-years of employment, Terri fulfilled a wide-verity of clerical duties too numerous to mention, with her attention to detail and customer service being the most remarkable. The City Commission deeply appreciates her professional and prompt attention to constituent matters, and she was recognized by staff as being patient and polite to customers no matter the situation which serves as an example to others. Terri was notorious for double checking and confirming to ensure everything went smoothly, from large events to small meetings and other arrangements; and

WHEREAS, today we honor Terri and congratulate her on her retirement. We thank her for her twenty-two-years of dedication to the City. We appreciate all Terri has done and wish her the best in future endeavors which will include spending more time with her husband, congregation, and her furry friends, further cultivating her green thumb and love for orchids, and doing the volunteer work she loves so dearly.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Partington, Mayor of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, do hereby proclaim February 24, 2023, as a day to recognize in the City of Ormond Beach and encourage all city employees and residents to join me in wishing Terri the very best in her well-deserved retirement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, to be affixed this 24th day of February in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Twenty-Three.

BILL PARTINGTON
Mayor
