

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, through the years, Hyatt and Cici Brown have been active in numerous civic and educational organizations, but they will be remembered mostly for how they so unselfishly gave of their time to serve the people who live and work in our community. It is their commitment for a better quality of life through business development, education, and the arts that has made them famous in our eyes; and

WHEREAS, effective community leadership is increasingly recognized as an important contributor to local social development; and it is a pleasure to honor Hyatt and Cici Brown for their contributions to our local development; and

WHEREAS, we are proud to be here tonight in honor of Hyatt and Cici Brown as they receive the Glenn & Connie Ritchey Community Service Award for their selfless dedication and volunteerism to our community;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ed Kelley, Mayor of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, do hereby proclaim May 20, 2011, as a day to honor

in the City of Ormond Beach and urge all residents to join with me in recognizing and honoring Hyatt and Cici Brown and encouraging all Volusia County residents to show them our appreciation for their outstanding service and exemplary commitment to our extended community.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, to be affixed this 20th day of May in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Eleven.
