

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Sanchez Park encompasses 8.4 acres abutting the banks of the Tomoka River. With large, shady trees, Sanchez Park hosts a variety of amenities including a large fishing dock, boat ramp, picnic tables and grills, playground, and restrooms; and

WHEREAS, since March 2011, two Ormond Beach students, Hailey Remigio and Hayleigh Ruddell, have spent many hours cleaning and looking after Sanchez Park under the Leisure Services "Adopt A Park" program; and

WHEREAS, Sanchez Park was scheduled for renovation this fiscal year due to its age and deteriorated condition, and as adopters of Sanchez Park, the girls were asked to provide their input as to the type of elements they would like to see included in the renovated playground; and

WHEREAS, the girls wrote a letter to the City Commission and appeared before the Leisure Services Advisory Board in support of naming the playground after their friend, Cameron Brenneman, who died in a tragic auto accident near the Ormond Beach Middle School. Cameron had a passion for racing and the girls suggested incorporating elements of racing into the playground; and

WHEREAS, the City Commission recently named the Sanchez Park playground the "Cameron Brenneman Memorial Playground" honoring Hailey Remigio and Hayleigh Ruddell's request in memory of their friend; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ed Kelley, Mayor of the City of Ormond Beach, do hereby proclaim October 13, 2012, as a day to dedicate the new playground equipment at Sanchez Park as the

in the City of Ormond Beach and urge all residents to join with me on this day in paying tribute to Hailey Remigio and Hayleigh Ruddell as outstanding representatives of the youth of the City of Ormond Beach and in thanking them for their service to our community.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the City of Ormond Beach, to be affixed this 13th day of October in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Twelve.

ED KELLEY
Mayor
