

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Joyce Ebbets, a longtime resident of the City of Ormond Beach, has been a staunch supporter of the Central Park project over the years. She tirelessly devoted her services as a citizen and City Commissioner toward accomplishing our community vision of having a trail system, picnic areas, providing a habitat for animals, and ample green space in Central Park for the residents of Ormond Beach to enjoy; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Ebbets was instrumental in securing ECHO and Land and Water Conservation grants for trails, a pier, boardwalk, and restroom renovations at the park; and

WHEREAS, in 2007, the City of Ormond Beach named a fishing pier and observation deck in Central Park the "Joyce Ebbets Fishing Pier and Observation Deck" in honor of Ms. Ebbets for her dedication and support of Central Park planning and amenities; and

WHEREAS, for many years, Ms. Ebbets has supported the interconnection of the Central Park lakes, which was made possible through a FEMA grant, and an environmental learning center, of which construction will start in a few months through ECHO grant funding; and

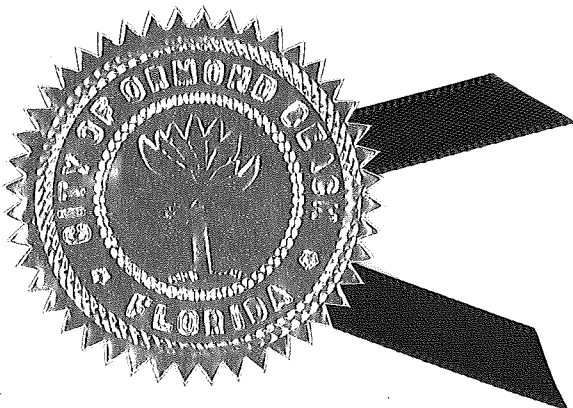

WHEREAS, Ms. Ebbets has enjoyed fishing for many years, photography, and serving her community;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ed Kelley, Mayor of the City of Ormond Beach, do hereby proclaim April 24, 2014, as a day to pay tribute to in the City of Ormond Beach and urge all residents to join with me this day in tribute and appreciation to Joyce Ebbets for her achievements at Central Park and her service to our community.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the City of Ormond Beach, to be affixed this 24th day of April in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Fourteen.

Ed Kelley
