

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Chief Henry "Andy" Osterkamp has a long and distinguished record of service to the residents of Ormond Beach having started his career with the City in 1982 as a Police Officer and throughout the years has held positions including Corporal, Detective Corporal, Patrol Sergeant, Internal Affairs Sergeant, Commander, Division Chief, and Police Chief since July 2010; but it was June 2011 when his "retirement app" began counting down the calendar and/or working days he had left before he could retire; and

WHEREAS, Chief Osterkamp holds a Bachelors Degree in Criminal Justice from Southwest University and is a graduate of the Southern Police Institutes' Command Officers Development Course and the 211th Session of the FBI National Academy. He is a member and past president of the Volusia Flagler Police Chief's Association, a member of the Florida Police Chief's Association and the International Association of Chiefs of Police; and

WHEREAS, Chief Osterkamp's expertise has touched many lives within the community. He has put his heart and soul into projects building on past successes through advocacy, research, and training. He embraced change because he knew change could improve the Ormond Beach Police Department; and

WHEREAS, Andy is looking forward to doing the things he enjoys (still counting down those working days), such as taking his boat out in the ocean to fish and riding his Harley Davidson motorcycle with friends...but only if it is not raining...and traveling. He also likes to work out his big muscles in the gym at least three times a week with Mondays being dubbed "International Chest Day"—who knew!; and

WHEREAS, it is with a heavy heart that we say goodbye to Chief Osterkamp...may he fully enjoy each day of retirement with no apps to watch;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ed Kelley, Mayor of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, do hereby proclaim March 15, 2016, as a day to honor in the City of Ormond Beach and urge all residents to join with me on this day as we recognize Chief Andy Osterkamp for his service and dedication to Ormond Beach as we extend our admiration to him for a job well done!

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, to be affixed this 15th day of March in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Sixteen.

Ed Kelley, Mayor

Commissioner James Stowers

Commissioner Rick Boehm

Commissioner Troy Kent
