

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Krista Joy Boehm is a hometown girl, raised in Ormond Beach. She has had many challenges throughout her 28 years, which she has faced with perseverance and her amazing positive outlook on life; and

WHEREAS, Krista earned a Bachelor of Arts in History from the Florida State University in 2010, becoming a candidate for her Doctor of Law degree. She worked as a legal intern at the City of Ormond Beach Legal Department and Maple Street, Inc. in 2012, and recently graduated from the Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University, College of Law, in Orlando, Florida; and

WHEREAS, Krista is to be commended for her enthusiasm and the time and energy she invested in her education. Everyone who knows her knows that she is tenacious to say the least. It was her dedication to making sure that every "i" was dotted and every "t" crossed that made a difference in her journey to attaining her law degree...she also enjoys history, reading and traveling; and

WHEREAS, Krista Boehm is one young woman who can say she saw her dreams come true right before her eyes, and we are honored to be here today to celebrate with Krista;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Partington, Mayor of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, do hereby proclaim December 11, 2016, as a day to honor in the City of Ormond Beach and urge all residents to join with me on this day as we celebrate with Krista Boehm and applaud her accomplishment of achieving the Juris Doctor degree.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, to be affixed this 11th day of December in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Sixteen.
