

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the Ormond Beach Historical Society is the only private, nonprofit organization working to preserve and share the rich history of Ormond Beach; and

WHEREAS, the historic Anderson-Price Memorial Building, acquired in 2002 from the Ormond Beach Woman's Club, has helped the organization achieve a higher visibility in Ormond Beach; and

WHEREAS, Suzanne Heddy, Executive Director of the OBHS for over nine years, has helped to keep a steady course in the mission to support education and preservation of Ormond history and the Birthplace of Speed. She felt history was important for the community because it brought a "sense of place" to Ormond Beach; and

WHEREAS, Suzanne has long promoted the "historic corridor"—the area anchored by The Casements, MacDonald House and Ormond Memorial Art Museum; and (Ormond Beach Observer, December 16, 2016, and Ormondhistory.org/about us)

WHEREAS, Suzanne has done a superior job as Executive Director, but she is now ready to turn over the well-established OBHS to someone else to lead for the future;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Bill Partington, Mayor of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, do hereby proclaim January 3, 2017, as a day to recognize in the City of Ormond Beach and urge all residents to join with me in honoring Suzanne Heddy for her service and dedication to the Ormond Beach Historical Society and her community as we extend our admiration to her for a job well done!

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, to be affixed this 3rd day of January in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Seventeen.

BILL PARTINGTON
Mayor
