

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, AHC Safe & Lock is a family-owned business that has the reputation of being the “go to” place for the best information, service and products in the security industry. It is located in the heart of downtown Ormond Beach on West Granada Boulevard; and

WHEREAS, AHC Locksmiths have experience with many different varieties of security hardware installations, but it was the life-saving skills of Dyson Billings that saved the life of an AHC employee on January 25, 2017, who had a heart attack and went into cardiac arrest. Dyson immediately started performing CPR while first responders were notified and enroute. The Ormond Beach Fire Department and EVAC arrived on the scene and started performing pre-hospital Advance Life Support that ended with successful resuscitation, whereby the employee was transported to the hospital. The performance of immediate CPR contributed to the positive outcome of the patient’s condition, who is alive and doing well; and

WHEREAS, more than 326,000 people in the United States suffer out-of-hospital cardiac arrests each year. Statistics prove that if more people knew CPR, more lives could be saved. The Ormond Beach Fire Department offers free CPR courses quarterly to our residents in an effort to have more CPR trained people in our community to assist in saving lives; and

WHEREAS, it is because of the heroic efforts of Dyson Billings and many others like him that the lives of our precious loved ones have been saved;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Partington, Mayor of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, do hereby proclaim February 21, 2017, as a day to recognize
