

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Sylvia Frost began her career in City of Ormond Beach's Building Department over 30 years ago--in 1986--when Ronald Regan was President of the United States; Pixar Animation Studios had just opened in California; Cyndi Lauper, Madonna and Huey Lewis were topping the Billboard charts; Crocodile Dundee and Top Gun were Box Office number one films; and Nicholas Fortunato served as City of Ormond Beach Mayor; and

WHEREAS, throughout the years, Sylvia's duties included the supervision of six Leisure Services Directors, whom she always kept in line. She was instrumental in the organization of the Project Romp Magic Forest Playground renovations in 2013 and received the City's Employee of the Quarter recognition in 2002 and 2013, as well as, the Volusia League of Cities Employee of the Year Award in 2014; and

WHEREAS, Sylvia endured the wildfires of '98, Hurricane Floyd, the hurricanes of '04, the floods of "The Great No Name Storm" of 2009, and most recently Hurricane Matthew--all while serving the Leisure Services Department and the citizens of Ormond Beach, making the City of Ormond Beach her first priority; and

WHEREAS, it is with a heavy heart that we say farewell, but now is the time for Sylvia to retire and make Sylvia Frost her number one priority as she enjoys her well-deserved retirement years;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Partington, Mayor of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, do hereby proclaim March 31, 2017, as a day to recognize in the City of Ormond Beach and urge all residents to join with me on this day as we recognize Sylvia Frost for her service and dedication to Ormond Beach as we extend our admiration to her for a job well done!

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, to be affixed this 20th day of March in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Seventeen.
