

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Ryck Hundredmark was born on September 8, 1942, in Buffalo, New York and later moved to Pittsburgh, PA where he was raised by his mother, a teacher and his father, a car dealer; and

WHEREAS, Ryck followed his father's footsteps into the car business, eventually running his own dealerships, including King Oldsmobile, the largest dealership in Broward County; and

WHEREAS, in 2006 Ryck retired to Ormond Beach where he helped Ormond MainStreet, serving two terms as Board President and volunteering on the Events Committee, spearheading the creation of the Ormond Beach Arts District; and

WHEREAS, Ryck loved volunteering and also made time to serve on the City's Board of Adjustment and Appeals as well as the Brownfield Advisory Board; and

WHEREAS, Ryck understood the business and organization of events and was the driving force behind several special events such as the Celtic and Riverfest Festivals, making them very successful; and

WHEREAS, Ryck said, until he moved to Ormond Beach he had little time or interest to volunteer or work on civic projects, but he more than made up for it after arriving here, ensuring that his time was spent working for a better Ormond Beach; and

WHEREAS, Ryck will be missed dearly by his devoted wife Nancy and their children, Jayne, Jill, Richard, and Tony

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Partington, Mayor of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, do hereby proclaim April 16, 2019 as a day to remember the legacy of in the City of Ormond Beach and urge all residents to join with me at this time as we recognize Ryck Hundredmark for his valuable service to our community and a giving life well lived.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, to be affixed this 16th day of April in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Nineteen.

BILL PARTINGTON
Mayor
