

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Annabella Kaney Olivari will be a Senior in the Cambridge Advanced International Certificate Education program, the AICE Program, at Seabreeze High School in the Fall. Students receiving the AICE diploma are automatically eligible for the Florida Bright Futures Scholarship. Annabella is also a member of the National Honor Society and will serve as Vice President in her senior year.

WHEREAS, Annabella has always had a love of the arts. Ten years-ago, while attending Pine Trail Elementary School, she served as the Art Teacher for the Day, designing CD and DVD cases. Most recently, she is the proud recipient of the Silver Key from the Northeast Florida Scholastic Art Awards. Her piece competed with more than 2600 student art entries; and

WHEREAS, Annabella founded and installed a “Free Little Library” at the Environmental Discovery Center in Ormond Beach. She will be installing a second “Free Little Library” on the Seabreeze High School Campus this summer. The Seabreeze addition was designed by her brother, Luca and his friend. As an avid reader, Annabella wanted to make sure anyone can have access to books; and

WHEREAS, Annabella is a compassionate soul. In second grade, she asked those attending her birthday party to bring monetary donations. She raised $700 and donated the funds to Grass Roots Giving in order to pay for extra-curricular activities for local area students; and

WHEREAS, in February of this year, Annabella founded the Mental Health Awareness Club at Seabreeze High School. The club produces pocket bears, a symbol of a bear hug. The bears are given to students who are having a difficult day as a reminder that they are loved and not alone; and

WHEREAS, in the words of Scott Adams, “There is no such thing as a small act of kindness. Every act creates a ripple with no logical end.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Partington, Mayor of the City of Ormond Beach, Florida, do hereby proclaim June 7, 2022, as a day to recognize
